Accounting Student Memberships

PICPA (Free to Students)
PICPA helps students explore the CPA and public accounting career path through networking, professional development, accounting career resources, scholarships, and information about the Pennsylvania CPA Exam and licensing process.

The Institute of Internal Auditors — IIA (Free to Students)
The IIA helps students explore internal audit, risk, and compliance careers through career resources, internship opportunities, networking with professionals, scholarships, and discounted access to internal audit credentials and training.

AICPA & CIMA (Free to Students)
AICPA & CIMA helps students explore careers ranging from public accounting and CPA work to management accounting and finance leadership through CPA and CGMA career information, career-development tools, study resources, and guidance on professional qualifications.

Association of Government Accountants — AGA (Free to Students)
AGA helps students explore government accounting, auditing, budgeting, and public-sector financial management through networking with government finance professionals, career resources, mentorship, scholarships, competitions, and leadership opportunities.

Institute of Management Accountants — IMA (Discounted Student Membership)
IMA helps students explore management accounting, corporate finance, and business leadership careers through networking with accounting and finance professionals, the CMA pathway, student chapters, leadership opportunities, scholarships, competitions, and career-focused education.

Association of Certified Fraud Examiners — ACFE (Discounted Student Membership)
ACFE helps students explore forensic accounting, fraud examination, and anti-fraud careers through career resources, mentoring, networking, fraud-related training, and a discounted pathway toward the Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE) credential.

ISACA (Discounted Student Membership)
ISACA helps students explore IT audit, information systems, cybersecurity, risk, and technology-focused accounting careers through professional networking, mentorship, career opportunities, training, and discounted credentials such as IT Audit and cybersecurity certifications

American Accounting Association — AAA (Discounted Student Membership)
AAA helps students explore accounting research, education, and academic or professional accounting careers through access to accounting journals and research, networking opportunities, career resources, discounted conferences, and opportunities to engage with different areas of the accounting profession.